IMPORTANT INFORMATION AROU	T PROCEDURES FOR	ORTAINING A LO	AN

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who obtains a loan. What this means for you: When you obtain a loan, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

I am applying for credit in my own name relying only on my income. Everything I have stated in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand you will retain this application and any other credit information whether or not it is approved. You are authorized to check my credit and employment history and to answer questions about your credit experience with me. I authorize any person or consumer reporting agency to complete and furnish to you any information it may have or obtain in response to your credit inquiries. The undersigned hereby certify that the information in this application is true and complete, warrant that we have no debts or financial obligations not stated herein, and recognize the penalties and defenses resulting from giving a false statement of financial condition hereon may be illegal and fraudulent and may be the basis for denying a discharge in bankruptcy. I further state that I am not contemplating bankruptcy at this time.
